

WINDSONG'S LEGACY

Triple Crown Winner - Trotter Of The Year

Windsong's Legacy became the first trotting Triple Crown winner in 32 years since Super Bowl in 1972. Besides winning the Hambletonian, Yonkers Trot and Kentucky Fut., he dominated his division also capturing Finals of the Goodtimes, Stanley Dancer and Canadian Trotting Classic. He compiled a stellar 12-9-2-1 slate and earned $1,713,806, making him the leading single season money winning trotter in history. Windsong's Legacy consistently beat the best colts of his generation including Tom Ridge, Cantab Hall and Cash Hall. He is by Two-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year and leading sire Conway Hall and from the family of world champion sire Yankee Glide 3,1:55.1 ($506,904).

2006 Stud Fee: $12,500
